

Class Gift Book Award

The Class Gift Book Award is funded from student, parent, friend and faculty/staff gifts to the 2008 Class Gift Campaigns. You can make your gift to the Class Gift Campaigns today by visiting www.alumni.emory.edu/classgifts.

Application Requirements: This award is open to all undergraduate College, Business and Nursing students. Each applicant should submit the attached form and a one to two page essay focusing on his/her significant contributions to the University community and/or the greater Atlanta community at large. Essays must focus on one or more of the following categories:

- ❖ Tutorials/Academic Assistance
- ❖ Artistic Contributions
- ❖ Social/Psychological Support
- ❖ Leadership
- ❖ Volunteerism

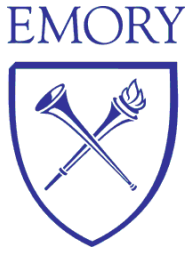

The applicant must also include a resume and an unofficial transcript or copy of the latest report indicating his/her cumulative GPA. Please be aware that GPA is not the primary consideration; however, academic achievement is important for all applicants.

Application Deadline: All applications must be received by Friday, April 25, 2008 at 5:00 p.m.

Selection Process: Members of the 2008 Class Gift Campaign Committees will select one to several individual(s), depending upon the total funds raised by the class gift campaigns, to receive the Class Gift Book Award. A $500 award will be given to each recipient to be used at the Emory Bookstore for the purchase of books and school supplies during the 2008-09 academic year.

Expectations of the Recipient: Each recipient will be expected to continue giving back to the Emory community by agreeing to help promote future class gift campaigns. Such duties would include allowing the class gift committees to use your name, photo and "bio" in promotional materials for fundraising, signing letters, etc.

Questions: Please direct further questions or inquiries to Michelle Sawyer, Emory Annual Fund, at 404.727.1859 or michelle.sawyer@emory.edu.
